Subject: Officer Involved Shooting – Loveland Police Department
Date: November 11, 2019

On 11/11/19 at about 8:30 pm, the Loveland Police Department was investigating a possible homicide in the 3300 block of Cuchara Court. Members of the Loveland Police Department SWAT Team entered the residence and encountered an adult female suspect in the homicide investigation. The suspect was struck during an exchange of gunfire and pronounced deceased at the scene. One officer sustained minor injuries during the incident; he was evaluated and cleared by paramedics.

The 8th Judicial District Critical Incident Response Team (CIRT) was notified and has responded to take over the investigation. The Larimer County Sheriff's Office will be the lead investigating agency. The investigation is ongoing and no further information will be released at this time.
